MASTER TRAINING COURSE

Given by
Dr. SIMONE MORETTO

Dr. Simone graduated in Dentistry from State University of Campinas in Brazil. Afterwards, she obtained the titles of Specialist, Master and PhD in Restorative Dentistry at the Sao Paulo University, Brazil, building part of her education at BIOMAT – Biomaterials Research group of the Department of Oral Health Sciences, KU Leuven (University of Leuven), Belgium.

As a researcher she developed a sound scientific background with papers published on peer reviewed journals and presentation in several International Congresses.

With an extensive clinical experience and a solid academic formation, she built up a long-term expertise which supported her in teaching as an Associate Professor in Brazil and afterwards when lecturing in courses of Continuing Education in modern Dentistry all around the World.

Since 2014 she has joined GC Europe as a Training Manager completing the existing team of experts in developing training courses with a well-balanced clinical and scientific point of view.
